Fifth Sunday of Easter

Jesus' followers live by a new commandment: love one another.

On this fifth Sunday in the joyful season of Easter, we are drawn here by the Holy Spirit to worship and celebrate God's abiding love. After weeks of growing in our appreciation for the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we find ourselves called by him to lay down our lives in love as he did. Let us pray fervently today that we may truly have such love for one another.
